

General information: So the CafeStation (server) is administered by your company and my workstations connect to it?

It's not like that. CafeStation should be installed on one of the workstations in your cyber cafe, which can only be accessed by cafe operators. It acts as a server and controls remote clients, which connect to it.

Unique solution ID: #1013

Author: Administrator

Last update: 2006-03-18 17:22